BULLETIN ADVERTISERS ARE THE HIGHEST BIDDERS FOR TRADE

EDITION

It is for the merchant to say whether he wants new business. If he is content with what he has, and is certain it cannot be invaded by competition, he may "stand pat." That is his affair. But if he really is anxious for new business he must bid for it through such a public medium as the Evening Bulletin, BECAUSE THE EVENING BULLETIN IS A CUSTOMER-FINDER.

HILO PINEAPPLE INDUSTRY GOES AHEAD

Machinery Bought In New York For Pineapple Cannery

(Bulletin Wireless Special)
Hilo, Nov. 13.—The Hilo Fruit Company has bought the machinery for a pineapple cannery with a capacity of 10,000 cans annually. This machinery will be shipped from New York by the Texan, leaving December 10, and the building will be erected here early in January.

The purchase of this cannery goes far to complete a pineapple project which has been interesting influential people of Hilo for some months past. The promoters did not have an easy time of it at the outset, but they finally got things coming their way and a first class industry, well backed, is assured for the small planters of the Hilo district for whom bananas did not prove the success hoped for.

Demand Payment Of Bond

A new turn has been given to the attempt to bring back the Hawaiian band by an action which was taken last night by Attorney General Peters acting under the instructions of Governor Carter and Col. Jones of the National Guard. When the band left Col. Jones required a bond for the return of the instruments, which are the property of the United States, by October 1. This bond, which was in the sum of $3000, was furnished by the United States Fidelity and Surety company, and it is understood was secured to them by Messrs. Shingle, A. N. Campbell, C. J. Hutchins, J. F. Morgan and J. C. Cohen, is now, according to its terms, forfeited to the Territory and Attorney General Peters has given out the information that the matter will be pressed to its full extent.

The demand made last night was worded as follows: Joel C. Cohen and The United States Fidelity and Guaranty Co., Honolulu, T. H. Demand is hereby made of you as principal and surety respectively under and by virtue of that certain bond executed to the undersigned as obligee, of date the 22nd day of May, A. D. 1906, and in the penal sum of Three Thousand Dollars ($3,000) for the return of those certain instruments delivered by said obligee to the said J. C. Cohen on heretofore, to-wit, the said 22nd day of May. Respectfully yours, J. W. JONES, Col. 1st Regt., N. G. H. Nov. 12, 1906. Another matter which is interesting in regard to the band instruments is what might be done should the authorities see fit. The instruments are the property of the United States and under the Federal law when a demand is made for property of this kind and the person to whose care it has been entrusted is unable to produce it upon such demand, it is prima facie evidence of embezzlement. Of course it is doubtful if any action of this kind would be taken but it could be easily done if the authorities so wished.

TRANSPORT DANCE AT SEASIDE

A military hop will be given at the Seaside Hotel tonight in honor of Quartermaster Captain Jewel and bride and the officers and ladies of the transport Logan. A most cordial invitation to the public is extended.

MRS. MAKALUA DEAD

Mrs. Makalua, the widow of the late Judge Makalua of Lahaina, died this morning 70 years of age, at the residence of Mrs. Sam Nalua, her granddaughter, at Pauoa. Her son, Dr. Makalua, is at present in London. The deceased was a very well-known Hawaiian lady, who had many relatives of prominence. The funeral will probably take place tomorrow.

HOLSTEIN WANTED FOR SPEAKERSHIP

Hughes Laying Wires, But Will Meet Strong Opposition

DOWSETT CHOICE FOR PRESIDENT OF SENATE

BISHOP, KNUDSEN AND SMITH ARE ALSO MENTIONED TO FILL THIS IMPORTANT POSITION

Considerable speculation is at present being indulged in by those interested in the working of the legislature, as to who will preside over the two houses when they go into session in the spring. Holstein of Kohala is generally accepted as being the probable Speaker of the House. John Hughes is known to have already begun to lay his wires for this exalted position, but he will probably be disappointed.

MORE CANDIDATES FILE

EXPENSE ACCOUNTS

The following additional expense accounts of County candidates have been filed with the County Clerk: John Fernandez, who ran for Deputy Sheriff of Kona is as follows: "Personal expenses as a candidate $25."

This is the smallest account on record. Jack's only expense having been his nomination fee.

D. Kalauokalani, candidate for County Clerk, did not spend much. His expenses were: Personal expenses as a candidate $25.00; Expenses of printing and advertising $9.00.

Total $34.00. Andrew Cox, Supervisor for Wailua, also ran out a modest bill: Personal expenses as a candidate $25.00; Printing and advertising $15.00; Stationery and postage $3.00; Public meetings $5.00.

Total $48.00. His brother, Oscar Cox, who ran for Deputy Sheriff of Wailua, got off still more cheaply: Personal expenses $25.00; Printing and advertising $5.00; Postage and stationery $5.00; Public meetings $2.00.

Total $37.00. David Watson, one of the unsuccessful candidates for Supervisor for Koolau, spent $36 for his fun: Nomination fee $25.00; Hire of buggy $11.00; Postage and stationery $25.00.

Total $61.00. John W. Cathcart paid $120 for his campaign for the County Attorneyship: Nomination fee $25.00; Personal expenses $25.00; Printing and advertising $25.00; Stationery and postage $5.00; Public meetings $10.00; Salaries of clerk and messengers $10.00; Salaries of watcher $20.00.

$ $ More Funds For Band $ $

The Bulletin has the following available for a fund to provide for the return of the band-boys: Cash order $250.00; L. L. McCandless 50.00; Bulletin 20.00; George Bigelow 5.00; Charles Hustace Jr. 5.00; A. D. Castro 2.00; L. B. Wood 1.50; Judge Kingsbury 1.50; W. T. Rawlins 1.50; James Wilder 1.00; J. R. Galt 1.00; A. N. Sanford 1.00; Cash 1.00.

The Bulletin's band fund was increased by $5, yesterday afternoon when Charles Hustace Jr. put his gold piece down on the counter and asked to have it added to the coin that is being subscribed.

This makes something over $340, that has been paid in cash or pledged by those contributing through the Bulletin fund. In addition to this, Governor Carter has said that he would give $50, if it is needed, which puts the amount in the vicinity of $400, and the contributions already in sight from the Hawaiian societies promise from $600, to $800. Then there is the fund collected by the Shriners through Potentate C. B. Cooper and Noble R. W. Breckons, which adds another $100, at least.

So from present indications there ought to be $1000, which might be termed almost immediately available for the relief of the wandering bandmen and Captain Berger. There will be more needed and every little helps, even the dollar subscriptions. There are mighty few people in town who have not had a dollar's worth of pleasure from the Hawaiian band.

FATHER SYLVESTER ANSWERS THE CALL

With Hawaii Mission For Nearly Forty Years

HONORED PRIEST A GREAT WORKER IN YOUNGER DAYS

FAILING IN HEALTH OF LATE YEARS—DIED AT WAILUKU WHERE HE HAD BEEN UNDER SISTERS' CARE

Early this morning the Catholic Mission was informed by wireless of the death of Reverend Father Sylvester at Wailuku, where he had sojourned for a few years on account of his poor health. His many friends will be grieved over the death, although it was feared for weeks that he would not survive his illness. Reverend Father Sylvester was born at Turnhout in Belgium and entered

BIG SIX-MASTER EVERETT G. GRIGGS

MADE SLOW PASSAGE

With more masts than any other vessel carries that ever came into the harbor of Honolulu, the Everett G. Griggs arrived in this morning, 65 days out from Newcastle. The Griggs is a six-masted barkentine, the only one afloat, and the only vessel that carries more than five masts with the exception of one seven-master on the eastern coast.

The barkentine brings a short cargo of 3510 tons of coal from Newcastle consigned to Irwin & Co. Captain Delano reports that the voyage was a very slow and tedious one. The Griggs ought to have been in three weeks ago, but constant strong head winds and head seas delayed her. There were no storms encountered, but only generally unfavorable weather.

The Everett G. Griggs is a vessel with a history. At one time she was a four-masted barkentine, and as such was shipwrecked. Later she was changed to a four-masted ship. Last year her rig was again changed, and she comes here as an experiment—a six-masted barkentine. Captain Delano states that the experiment has proved a very successful one and that the vessel has demonstrated that her new rig is one that is very efficient.

The Griggs is a vessel of 2861 tons net register, and 3577 tons gross.

ENTERPRISE BEING TOWED BY FEARLESS

The American-Hawaiian steamship Nevanan, Captain Greene, arrived from San Francisco at 7 o'clock this morning, tying up at the railway wharf. Captain Greene reports a pleasant voyage down, with none of the headwinds that were met by the Alameda and other vessels that have arrived lately. The Enterprise, which sailed from here Saturday, accompanied by the tug Fearless, under her own steam, has evidently found it impossible to make the Coast without assistance. The Nevanan passed the Enterprise at 11 o'clock Sunday night, about 25 miles out, in tow of the Fearless. Captain Youngren of the Enterprise thought that he could get along without help but it was evidently a good thing for the steamship that the Fearless went along with her.

The Sheridan and her consort, the Slocum and Buford, towing her, were also sighted by the Nevanan at 11 o'clock Sunday morning.

The Nevanan brings a cargo of about 4000 tons of mixed freight for Honolulu, and has 2000 tons for Kahului. After discharging here, she will proceed, about Thursday night or Friday morning, to Kahului to discharge the remainder of her cargo, and will then go to Kapaemahu and Hilo. At Kapaemahu she will take on the first sugar of the new crop.

In addition to her other cargo, the Nevanan brought 300 hogs and 20 head of cattle.

FIREY CROSS ARRIVES

Seventy-eight days out from Newcastle, the British bark Firey Cross, Captain Clauson, arrived today with a cargo of about 2000 tons of coal. Like the Everett G. Griggs, which also arrived today, the Firey Cross encountered strong head winds and seas, which greatly delayed her and made the voyage a slow one. It was uneventful, however, and everybody aboard is well.

A further development of the Dora Lancaster case which is now before the Federal Court, occurred this afternoon when U. S. Marshal Hendry placed a large colored gentleman named William Monroe under arrest on a charge of adultery with Dora. The latter is now being tried for having one husband too many but evidently that was not satisfactory from the information which led to the arrest today.

After Monroe had been arrested he was taken into the Marshal's office, where he asked who had sworn out the warrant. He was told that it had been sworn to by the District Attorney and he replied: "I'll sho' fix that feiler. He done called me names in he cote dis mawning. I ain't no niggah nobow, I ain't."
